

Brexit will cost the exchequer at least £24bn a year in lost revenue. Funding needed for the 2017 manifesto policies is £48billion per year. If you support taking the UK out of the EU, which Labour policies will you sacrifice from the 2017 manifesto? You need to save £24billion.

National Education Service and Early Years		Health and Social Care
<input type="checkbox"/>	Schools: increasing funding, including protection against losses from the new funding formula, free school meals and arts pupil premium: £6.3 Billion.	<input type="checkbox"/>	Healthcare including free car parking but excluding higher pay and capital expenditure: £5.0 Billion
<input type="checkbox"/>	Skills: introducing free FE tuition, equalising 16-19 funding and restoring EMA: £2.5 Billion	<input type="checkbox"/>	Social care: £2.1 Billion
<input type="checkbox"/>	Childcare and early years including more money for Sure Start: £5.3 Billion	<input type="checkbox"/>	Restore nurses' bursaries: £0.6 Billion
<input type="checkbox"/>	Removing university tuition fees and restoring maintenance grants: £11.2 Billion
Work & Pensions		Other Departments and Items
<input type="checkbox"/>	Social security: increase ESA by £30pw for those in the work-related activity group, scrap bedroom tax, implement the PiP legal ruling, restore Housing Benefit for under 21s, scrap Bereavement Support Payment reforms, £2 billion of additional funding for Universal Credit for review of cuts and how best to reverse them, uprate Carers' Allowance to the level of JSA: £4.0 Billion	<input type="checkbox"/>	Lift public sector pay cap: £4.0 Billion
<input type="checkbox"/>	Double paternity pay and paternity leave £0.3 Billion	<input type="checkbox"/>	Other current spend items: including abolition of employment tribunal fees, additional border guards, firefighters and HMRC tax collection staff: £0.6 Billion
<input type="checkbox"/>	State pensions: uprate state pensions for British pensioners overseas, extending Pension Credit to those affected by changes to their state pension age since the 1995 Pensions Act: £0.3 Billion	<input type="checkbox"/>	Recruit an additional 10,000 police officers to work on community beats: £0.3 Billion
		<input type="checkbox"/>	Barnett consequential (Scotland, Wales, NI): £6.1 Billion
The ticked boxes above are the policies I am willing to remove from Labour's next manifesto because I want Brexit to go ahead		£ Total 24 Billion removed from funding
I support a referendum on the Brexit deal and will campaign to remain <input type="checkbox"/>		No funding removed from manifesto
Name:		Constituency:	